National Health Care Reform Expert to Speak at Endowment for Health Annual Meeting

Concord, NH – A Washington, D.C.-based health reform expert is slated to deliver the keynote address at the Endowment for Health Annual Meeting on March 16.

Len Nichols, a highly respected health care economist and director of the Health Policy Program at the New America Foundation, will discuss the various proposals being debated nationally to expand health insurance coverage to all Americans. He will also discuss the cost reduction and quality improvements necessary to affect real and lasting change in the health care system.

Dr. Nichols was the Senior Advisor for Health Policy at the Office of Management and Budget during the Clinton reform efforts of 1993-94. He has testified frequently before Congress and state legislators and is published widely in a variety of health-related journals.
