Endowment for Health Names Sue Fulton to Grants and Financial Management Post; Cheryl Dempsey Joins Foundation as Administrative Manager

The Endowment for Health, the state's largest health foundation, named Sue Fulton of Contoocook as grants and financial manager. In this role, Fulton oversees the grant application process, grant budgets, and grantee progress reporting. Fulton also oversees the financial services and accounting activities for the organization, including monitoring of investment activities, contracts and cash flow. She has been with the Endowment since 2001, serving in progressively responsible positions.

Prior to her position at the Endowment, Fulton worked as a data analyst for the Vermont Program for Quality in Health, an organization dedicated to developing and implementing a system of quality design and measurement for physicians, and other health care professionals, hospitals, and health care facilities.

Cheryl Dempsey of Wolfeboro recently joined the Endowment as administrative manager with responsibility for all office operations, enhancing the foundation's use of technology and liaising with the foundation's Board of Directors.

Before joining the Endowment, Dempsey served as location manager and technology support specialist for Ernst & Young in Manchester. Additionally, she served in a variety of responsible roles for various regional and local companies, overseeing HR, technology and operational support.

*The Endowment for Health was established in 1999. Since 2001, the Endowment has awarded nearly 628 grants totaling close to $28 million to support a wide range of health-related programs and projects in New Hampshire.
